★ 指定課題文Ⅰ 小学4～6年生(個人の部)

Elfie was the best dog in the world. We played and grew up together. The years passed quickly, and while I was growing taller and taller, Elfie was growing rounder and rounder. The older Elfie got, the more she slept, and the less she liked to walk. I was getting worried! We took Elfie to the vet, but there wasn't much he could do. "Elfie is just growing old," he said. It soon became too difficult for Elfie to climb the stairs, so I carried her to my room at bedtime. I gave Elfie a soft pillow to sleep on, and before we went to sleep I would say to her, "I'll always love you." I know she understood. One morning I woke up and discovered that Elfie had died during the night. My family buried Elfie together. We all cried and hugged each other. My brother and sister loved Elfie a lot, but they never told her so. I was very sad, too, but it helped to remember that I had told her every night, "I'll always love you." Someday I'll have another dog, or a kitten or a goldfish. Whatever my pet is, I'll tell it every night, "I'll always love you."

★ 指定課題文Ⅱ 小学4～6年生(ペアの部)

- A: Hi 名前! Summer vacation is almost over. Did you finish all your homework?
- B: Oh, yes. I finished it during the first week.
- A: Wow! I've been doing mine little by little each day. Why did you do it so quickly?
- B: Well, I went to Thailand with my family and didn't want to do homework there. I wanted to enjoy the trip and then relax when I got home.
- A: Oh really? Thailand sounds exciting! What did you do there?
- B: We stayed at a wonderful beach hotel and I swam in the sea every day. The water was so clean and beautiful.
- A: Cool. Sounds great!
- B: I also went to a zoo and rode on an elephant!
- A: An elephant? How exciting! Was it scary?
- B: A little because I was so high up. How about you? What did you do during summer vacation?
- A: Just the usual. I went to many summer festivals, watched some fireworks, and visited family. Also, I ate a lot of ice cream and shaved ice because it was so hot and humid.
- B: Sounds fun!

★ 指定課題文Ⅲ 中学生(個人の部)

Art class was over, but Lucy sat in her chair. Her paper had nothing on it. The teacher looked at the blank paper. He asked, "Is that a white rabbit in the snow?" "No. I just can't paint," said Lucy.

The teacher smiled and said, "Just make a mark and see where it takes you." Lucy grabbed her paintbrush and made a dot on the paper. "There," she said. Her teacher picked up the paper and studied it carefully. Then he said, "Now sign it." Lucy thought for a moment, "Well, maybe I can't paint, but I can sign my name."

The next week, when Lucy walked into art class, she was surprised to see her dot in a nice picture frame hanging on the classroom wall. Lucy thought, "I can make a better dot than that!" She painted and painted. A yellow dot. A red dot. A blue dot. The blue mixed with yellow. She discovered that she could make a green dot. Lucy kept experimenting. Lots of little dots in many colors. Lucy said to herself, "If I can make little dots, I can make big dots, too."

At the school art show a few weeks later, Lucy's dot paintings were very popular. She was very happy. Then, she saw a little boy looking up at her. "You're a great artist. I wish I could draw," he said. "I bet you can," said Lucy. "Me? No, not me. I can't draw a straight line with a ruler," said the boy. Lucy smiled, handed him a blank sheet of paper, and said, "Show me." The boy's pencil shook as he drew his line. He was nervous when he gave the paper back to her. Lucy looked at the boy's line carefully and then said, "Please sign it."

★ 指定課題文Ⅳ 中学生(ペアの部)

A: Hi 名前! Why are you running in the park all by yourself?

B: I was watching the Summer Olympics on TV and got inspired to come out and do some running.

A: Would you like to participate in the Olympics one day? That would be so cool!

B: Yes, I would. Winning a gold medal would be amazing because you get to stand there as our flag goes up and our national song is played.

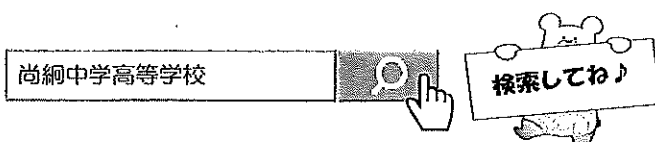

A: That would be great! All your friends and family would be very proud of you. You would become famous!

B: For sure! I like track and field very much, but becoming one of the best athletes in the world to get to the Olympics and win a medal takes a crazy amount of hard work. I don't think I can do it.

A: You can do it! I believe in you. Remember that those athletes are not alone. They have family, friends, coaches, and teammates supporting them all along the way. I'm your friend and I will help you any way I can.

B: Thanks! Well, do you want to run with me?

A: Sure! I'll do my best to keep up with you.
